

Topic	Learning Objectives	Key Vocabulary	Learning Sequence	Linked Learning	Home Learning
Investigating existing websites	Explain the purpose of websites Describe component features of websites Identify technologies used to access webpages	Audience and Purpose Hardware and software Navigation GUI Hyperlinks Interactivity Content	Investigate existing websites products Identify audience and purpose Describing component features and their aims Investigate and describe devices used to access websites Investigate and explain how devices can be used to access websites		This will be set on a by need basis. In order to consolidate learning and fluency of subject specific language.
Planning a multimedia website	Following the exam board set assignment Identify client requirements and target audience Create a work plan Describe assets and resources needed to create a website Create site map, visualisation diagrams and identify house style Legal considerations	Client Work plan (Gantt) Assets Resources House style Navigation Site map Copyright	Interpret client requirements and identify target audience Create a work plan Gantt chart Describing assets and resources needed Produce site map with navigation links, visualisation diagram and house style Explain legal issues and restrictions		This will be set on a by need basis. In order to consolidate learning and fluency of subject specific language.