MATTERS ARISING

Thanks from N&G Holt for organising a Spring Ball and offering support for future events. Given the support and positive feedback we have had, we would run this event again. Raised approximately £700. DF putting together item for newsletter. Requests for £500 for a literacy programme for use with small groups to enable access to the curriculum – approved. £200 requested to provide Y11 with a pen to mark their time at Blessed Trinity, also approved. £250 has been given towards the Peace Garden.

FUTURE EVENTS

Spring Fair 8/5/13 – stalls/games to be held – The Bag Ladies, bottle tombola, chocolate tombola (hold Y7 non-uniform day for children to bring in chocolate). Use games as last year in the theatre and also stocks for sponge-a-teacher. Need to check if any need refurbishing or painting. JC mentioned a former pupil, now jewellery making, who could be contacted to see if interested in having a stall. PT to check with Graham re “early bird” pie and peas, which was popular last year. Suggestion of holding a paid vote within school, for pupils to vote for a teacher they would like to see dunked in custard on the night! PT to look for volunteers. Cake stall to be stocked by PTFA. DF to check online costs for an advertising banner (without date), which could be used each year to advertise fair. Advertise in Burnley Express and 2BR.
